HOW METROPOLITAN LIVING, LLC PROTECTS YOUR PHI

Except as described in this Notice or specified by law we will not use or disclose your PHI. We will use reasonable efforts to request, use, and disclose the minimum amount of PHI necessary.

Whenever possible, we will de-identify or encrypt your personal information so that you cannot be personally identified. We have put physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards in place to protect your PHI and comply with federal and state laws.

YOUR RIGHTS

You have the following rights with respect to your PHI.

Obtain a copy of this Notice. You may obtain a copy of this notice at any time. Even if you have agreed to receive the Notice electronically, you are still entitled to a paper copy.

Request Restrictions. You may ask us not to use or disclose any part of your PHI. Your request must be in writing and include what restriction(s) you want and to whom you want the restrictions to apply. We will review and grant reasonable requests, but we are not required to agree to restrictions, except in some cases of disclosures to a health plan.

Inspect and copy. You have the right to inspect and get a copy of your PHI for as long as we maintain the information. You must put your request in writing. We may charge you for costs of copying, mailing, or other supplies that are necessary to grant your request.

We do have the right to deny your request to inspect and copy. If you are denied access, you may ask us to review the denial. In some cases, we may deny your request to review the denial.

Request amendment. If you feel that your PHI is incomplete or incorrect, you may ask us to amend it. You may ask for an amendment for as long as we maintain the information. Your request must be in writing and you must include a reason that supports your request. In certain cases, we may deny your request. If we deny your request for amendment, you have the right to file a statement of disagreement with our decision.

Receive a list (an accounting) of disclosures. You have the right to receive a list of the disclosures (an accounting) that we have made of your PHI six years prior to the date of your request.

The list will not include disclosures that we are not required to track, such as disclosures for the purposes of treatment, payment, or healthcare operations; disclosures which you have authorized us to make; disclosures made directly to you or to friends or family members involved in your care; or disclosures for notification purposes.

Your right to receive a list of disclosures may also be subject to other exceptions, restrictions, and limitations.

Your request for an accounting must be made in writing and state the time period for which you would like us to list the disclosures. We will not include disclosures made more than six years prior to the date of your request.

Notice of Privacy Practices

You will not be charged for the first disclosure list that you request, but you may be charged for additional lists provided within the same 12 month period as the first.

Request confidential communication. You may ask us to communicate with you using alternative means or alternative locations. For example, you may ask us to contact you about medical records only in writing or at a different address than the one in your file. Your request must be made in writing and state how and when you would like to be contacted.

You do not have to tell us why you are making the request, but we may require you to make special arrangements for payment or other communications.

We will review and grant reasonable requests, but we are not required to agree to any restrictions.

Note: Special Rules for Psychotherapy notes. Only Psychotherapy notes collected by a psychotherapist during a counseling session are considered PHI. If those notes are kept separate from a client's medical records, HIPAA requires that they be treated with higher standards of protection than other PHI.

It is not Metropolitan Living, LLC practice to keep psychotherapy notes as defined by HIPAA, or to keep any client notes separate from the client's file.

WHEN METROPOLITAN LIVING, LLC MAY USE AND DISCLOSE PHI

Common reasons for our use and disclosure of PHI include:

Treatment. To provide, coordinate, or manage health care and related services for you to make sure you are receiving appropriate and effective care. For example, we may contact you to provide appointment reminders, information about treatment alternatives, or to refer you to other health related benefits and services that may be of interest to you. Or we might contact another health care provider or third party to share information or consult with them about the services we are providing you.

Payment. To obtain payment or reimbursement for services provided to you. For example, we may need to disclose PHI to determine eligibility for treatment or claims payment.

Health Care Operations. To assist in carrying out administrative, financial, legal, and quality improvement activities necessary to run our business and to support the core functions of treatment and payment. For example, we may contact you to survey or get feedback on our services in order to improve them in the future.

Health Plan Sponsor. We may disclose PHI to a group health plan administrator, which may in turn, disclose such PHI to the group health plan sponsor, solely for the purposes of administering benefits, unless you pay for services out-of-pocket and request that we not disclose PHI related solely to those services and disclosure is not required by law.

Individuals involved in your care or payment for your care. We may disclose your PHI to a family member, other relative, close personal friend, or any person you identify, who is, based on your judgment, believed to be involved in your care or in payment related to your care.

Notice of Privacy Practices

12/26/2013

As required by law. We must disclose PHI when required to do so by law.

LESS COMMON REASONS FOR OUR USE AND DISCLOSURE OF PHI INCLUDE:

Legal proceedings. We may disclose PHI for a judicial or administrative proceedings in response to a court order, written notice, or protective order.

To avert serious threat to public health or safety. We may disclose PHI to avoid a serious and imminent threat to your health or safety or to the health or safety of others.

To provide reminders and benefits information to you. Disclosures may be used to verify your eligibility for health care and enrollment in various health plans and to assist us in coordinating benefits for those who have other health insurance or eligibility for government benefit programs.

Worker's compensation. We may disclose PHI to comply with worker's compensation laws and other similarly legally established programs.

Abuse or neglect. We may make disclosures to government authorities or social services agencies as required by law in the reporting of abuse, neglect, or domestic violence.

To government agencies for compliance purposes. We may use or disclose PHI to the Secretary of Health and Human Services to assist with a complaint investigation or compliance review.

Law enforcement. We may disclose PHI to law enforcement officials for the purpose of identifying or locating a suspect, witness, or missing person, or to provide information about victims of crimes.

Your written permission: We are required to get your written permission (authorization) before making or disclosing your PHI for purposes other than those provided above. Including most uses and disclosures of psychotherapy notes, use or disclosure of PHI for marketing purposes and sale of PHI, or as otherwise permitted or required by law. If you do not want to authorize a specific request for disclosure, you may refuse to do so without fear of reprisal.

You may withdraw your permission: If you do provide your written authorization and then later want to withdraw it, you may do so in writing at any time. As soon as we receive your written revocation, we will stop using or disclosing the PHI specified in your original authorization, except to the extent that we have already used it based on your written permission.

DATA PRIVACY

Why do we ask for information? We ask for information from you to determine what service or help you need, develop a service plan with you, and give you the services you want.

The information may also be used to determine your charges for services or for collection of payment from insurance companies or other payment sources.

Do you have to give information to us? There is no law that says you must give us any information. However, if you choose not to give us some information, it can limit our ability to serve you well.

What will happen if you do not answer the questions we ask? If you are here because of a court order, and you refuse to provide information, that refusal may be communicated to the Court.

Without certain information, we may not be able to tell who should pay for your services.

WHAT PRIVACY RIGHTS TO MINORS HAVE?

If you are under 18, you may request that information about you be kept from your parents. You must give us your request in writing, describe the information, and tell us why you don't want your parents to see it.

If, after reviewing your request, your therapist at Options Family and Behavior Services believes that giving information to your parents is not in your best interest, we will not share the information. If your therapist believes this information could be safely shared with your parents, we will inform you of that decision.

If you are under 16, you may ask for mental health services without consent of your parents, but you may have to pay for the services if you do not want your parents to know.
